EXCEPTIONALLY GOOD VAUDEVILLE AT CENTURY

A vaudeville bill of exceptional merit was presented at the Century theater Thursday evening. The vaudeville opened with Miss Marie Leeds, a singing and talking character comedienne. Her selections were: "When I Was a Dreamer and You Were My Dream;" "Everybody Rag With Me;" "On the 5:15;" "Dublin Bay," and completed her act with several Irish monologues. Earl Girdelas and his trained dogs caused much merriment. The lyric quartet completed the vaudeville and proved to be the hit of the bill. The quartet is composed of George Pierce, first tenor; Jack Begley, second tenor; Bert Berry, baritone, and Henri DeCunco, basso. They all have good voices and their harmony singing left nothing to be desired. George Pierce furnished a solo, "Sheltering Palms;" Jack Begley contributed two solos, "Virginia Lee" and "Dublin Bay," which were of a pleasing nature. The quartet sang "Everybody Rag With Me," "I Want to Linger," and a comedy song, "Mary Ate Some Pickles." Mr. Berry, a member of the four has been to Mishawaka on several previous engagements and has succeeded in placing himself as a favorite with the local patrons. Mr. Pierce was here with the "Diamond Comedy Four," and was formerly with the "Duke of Durham;" Henri DeCunco was formerly with the "Lew Dockstader Minstrels;" Bert Berry was formerly with the Joe E. Howards "Broadway Honeycomb."
